RE: Doyle, Robert C.

OFFENSE: Conspiracy to Affect Commerce by Robbery, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1951(a), a Class C Felony; and Felon in Possession of Firearm, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1) and 2, a Class C Felony.

SENTENCE: 210 months imprisonment, followed by 3 years supervised release, and pay a $200 special assessment. On November 28, 2017, his term of imprisonment was reduced to 84 months imprisonment; all other aspects of the Judgment remained the same.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall pay the balance owed on any court-ordered financial obligations in monthly installments of not less than $25, starting 60 days after supervision begins until paid in full.
2. The defendant shall provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information.
3. The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Officer for substance abuse, which program may include residential treatment and testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, with partial costs to be paid by the defendant, all as directed by the probation officer.
4. The defendant shall have no contact with persons the defendant knows or reasonably should know to be a current or former member, or associate, of the Aryan Brotherhood/White Supremist or any and all gangs, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
5. The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence or vehicle to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer to determine compliance with the conditions listed in the judgment (condition added on December 15, 2020).

ADJUSTMENT TO SUPERVISION: Mr. Doyle's Supervised Release commenced on February 25, 2022, in the Middle District of Florida. As such, he is being supervised by Officer Ashley Sears in Tampa, Florida. Mr. Doyle is scheduled to terminate supervision on February 24, 2025. On October 08, 2024, Mr. Doyle was arrested by the Marion County Sheriff's Office for two counts of Battery-Domestic Violence (M1) and one count of Criminal Mischief (F3). He was subsequently granted bail in the amount of $3,000 with special conditions to include among other things, no direct or indirect contact with the victim. However, on October 9, 2024, while incarcerated, Mr. Doyle was re-arrested for violating the conditions of his pre-trial release. No other violations were noted to have occurred while he was on supervised release.

VIOLATIONS: The following violations are submitted for the Court's consideration.

MANDATORY CONDITION: COMMISSION OF A CRIME – MISDEMEANOR BATTERY-DOMESTIC VIOLENCE (2 COUNTS), AND FELONY CRIMINAL MISCHIEF (1 COUNT)

On October 08, 2024, Mr. Doyle was arrested by the Marion County Sheriff's Office for two counts of Battery-Domestic Violence (M1) and one count of Criminal Mischief (F3). Reportedly, Mr. Doyle had been drinking alcohol throughout the day, and got into a verbal argument with his paramour. After the victim poured his alcohol out, Mr. Doyle became enraged, and began breaking bottles and slamming doors at the residence. While attempting to retreat, he slammed the victim's wrist in the door and grabbed and shook her. As the victim called law enforcement, Mr. Doyle took her phone, broke it, and left the residence. After being contacted by law enforcement, he returned to the residence and was subsequently arrested. As stated above, he was subsequently granted bail in the amount of $3,000 with special conditions to include among other things, no direct or indirect contact with the victim.

On October 9, 2024, while incarcerated, Mr. Doyle was re-arrested for violating the conditions of his pre-trial release. According to the police report, he contacted his parents on two separate occasions and asked them to relay messages to the victim, knowing he had a no contact order. His parents subsequently contacted the victim that same day and relayed the requested information. Specifically, one of the messages that he requested be relayed to the victim was "that his bond is $3,000 and to bring it before the storm arrives." As of the writing of this petition, Mr. Doyle remains incarcerated.
